THE RESTAURANT

PRESS RELEASE

KULTurig Premiere 5 May 2011

Das Salzburger Dinner Concert at St Peter Stiftskeller

The St Peter Stiftskeller is ideally situated just between the Cathedral and the Festival Hall, right in the heart of historic Salzburg. Records show that it was first mentioned as a hostelry in 803 AD, making it Europe's oldest restaurant. Today celebrities from the world over come to St Peter Stiftskeller to take in its genuine charm and the magic of its traditions. The new sits very comfortably alongside the old at St Peter Stiftskeller where finest hospitality is in perfect harmony with beautiful music.

The legacy of music

The KULTurig Ensemble is Salzburg's most sensual music formation: six musicians delight and surprise with skilful contrasts, based on traditional Salzburg music, masterly rearranged and performed in unexpected mixes. The well balanced overall sound composed of harp, harmonica, dulcimer, contrabass and guitar is sure to touch the heart strings and a pure, clean voice is goose pimple inducing. The successful combination of the traditional with a touch of mysticism and a generous pinch of jazz is accompanied by a delicious three course menu.

3 + 3

Austria's cuisine is authentic, honest and diverse – and so is the KULTurig music. Reason enough to let them shine together in the historic and rustic Petrusstube at the St Peter Stiftskeller: three performances of unforgettable music and lyrical texts are interspersed with a traditional three course menu made from fresh and top quality Austrian produce.

Menu

Buttermilk soup with potato croquettes & cepes

Beef-olives from young free grazing bulls served with nut dumplings & cranberry red cabbage

Salzburger Nockerl – our world famous local dessert

– perfect venue for KULTurig

Of all the rooms at St Peter Stiftskeller the Petrusstube exuberates that special style, where traditional flair blends effortlessly with elegant hospitality, notwithstanding a generous pinch of luxury. Whoever comes, wants to linger - whoever experiences this fascinating evening with enchanting music and delectable food, is creating unforgettable memories.
