Glamorous Kitzbühel invites for Gourmet Ski The new Relais & Châteaux Rosengarten ticks all the boxes

Kitzbühel looks forward to welcoming the international Ski Jet Setters for the 2011/12 season. Although the region is justly famous for its multitude and variety of beautiful Hotels and top Restaurants, this year brings a shining new facet in the Kaleidoscope of top hospitality and gastronomy with a twist:

For those in search of the extraordinary, the Hotel Restaurant Spa Rosengarten in Kirchberg ticks all the boxes:

- Privately owned by whiz kid star chef Simon Taxacher, master of the new French Mediterranean cuisine
- Tyrol's highest ever rankings in gourmet guides (2* Michelin in 2009)
- Breathtaking à-la-carte Restaurant with piano bar and smoking lounge (Reservations essential)
- Separate Bistro Light for in-between meals
- 26 exquisitely appointed rooms and suites, all with balconies – satisfying highest expectations
- Intimate Private Dining on top floor for small parties
- Gorgeous signature Spa
- Just 500m from the Maierlbahn, taking skiers to all the top pistes (transfers provided)
